NOTE: We expect good behavior from our club members. Charlestown is a working port so care must be taken especially around the harbour walls, edges, boats, fishing gear etc.

The harbour is not a secure area and it is parent's responsibility to supervise their children at all times while they are not in the boats during rowing, training and at events.

Please return the completed and signed form, with the correct membership fee to:
Sheleagh Pears 3 The Old School, Charlestown Road, Charlestown PL25 3NL
(Cheques payable to Charlestown Rowing Club)

*Parent / Guardian must now complete the questionnaire and Declaration on the reverse of this form.
Incomplete forms will be returned.*

Rowing Pilot Gigs can be demanding and strenuous exercise. If you have any questions about this section please consult the Membership Secretary before your child participates in these sports activities
