

CHARLESTOWN ROWING CLUB

WELFARE POLICIES AND PROVISIONS

The CPGA advise that

Every Gig Rowing club that has junior members (under 18) must appoint a Club Welfare Officer. The Welfare Officer will be the one to whom others will turn for support and advice, particularly if they have concerns about a child or the behaviour of anyone else. It is reasonable to expect the CWO to also support adult members of their club who may need it for their personal welfare, or that of someone else.

In order to support the Club and the Welfare Officer role the Club will have regard to the following CPGA Policies and Procedures Policies - Home - Cornish Pilot Gig Association
